TAKESHI FUKUMOTO

While making the preparations for this series I found myself looking at people s heads when I took the train or walked on the streets. Could the story's focus be because of this? I used to make myself seem really small while out walking, but now I feel like I've gotten better It might just be my imagination though

KITAKAWA TOUTA

This is my first time working on an original manga I m pretty nervous, but I d be really happy if you could enjoy it Bring happiness to Shouta...
